Mission Update – May 28, 2010

"Sharing God's message of hope in action"

Peru Youth Camp Update - June 31 to July 3

The other day, our missionary in Peru, Hector Del Carpio wrote to let me know how excited the Peruvian youth are about the upcoming Youth Camp in Peru, June 31- July 3.

Can you imagine what's going through the minds of these youth as they near the opening of this four-day youth camp? More than half of them have never had an opportunity like this before and are extremely excited about what it will be like. At the same time, the returning campers and leaders are reflecting on last year's camp and the impact that being there had on their lives! They're excited about meeting our team from the USA, the worship, the teaching, the dramas, the sports, the swimming, the crafts and meeting new life long friends etc. Many don't even know yet how God is going to touch their hearts and change their lives forever through the love of Jesus Christ!

You can't measure the impact of these camps by the $30 it costs to send a youth there. Lives are changed at camp and those changes live on forever by God's grace. Here's an example of the fruit coming from the camps! Last year a Peruvian youth leader was telling me how they remember us teaching at a youth camp about missions and God's call for them to be involved in fulfilling The Great Commission. As we talked, this leader told me their youth group was preparing their first youth mission team, so they too, could GO and do mission work in Peru! They later went out and were blessed at how God used them to reach people with the message of God's love.

The camp is about an hour and a half north of Lima. With what they charge us and the buses we have to rent to get the youth there it costs around $4,500 to put on the camp or about $30 per youth. As I write this letter, we have $2,030 donated toward the $4,500 needed. Would you consider helping us with the rest? We welcome any support you can give toward this effort. If you can't help financially, we understand and simply ask you to please pray. We know God will come through. He always does!

India Mission Update

By God's grace and with your help we began partial sponsorship of 7 of the missionary pastors in north India being trained by and working with DC and Sonja Kaushal and Living Hope Ministries of India. These missionaries and pastors go into unreached areas and establish local churches. If you would like to help with their sponsorship please send a gift earmarked for India Missionaries and we'll send you a picture of an Indian missionary to pray for.

Haiti Earthquake Relief Update

We continue to reach out to those in need in Haiti through our missionary friends there. Last week I made contact with Ed Lockett. Ed is a Field Co-ordinator with MVI. I love reading his updates about Haiti, he is right there helping people in need. I asked Ed if there was something specific we could help with. He shared with me that he was taking lots of beans and rice to the different tent communities where many of the quake victims are now living.

What a blessing it was to let him know we could send him $2,000 to help with that relief effort. It's always a blessing as a missionary to know that more help is on the way. Thank you for your gifts which allow us to help people like Ed, who are in the places where the work of Jesus is being done.

I asked Ed if he could send us some pictures of the places he brings the food so I can show you what your gifts are doing. Please know we will continue to help as God provides the funds. I've learned that we can't all go to the places that are in great need, but we sure can help!

Weller Family News & Update

In the picture to the right Anne, JJ and I are celebrating Katie's graduation from college.

During her four years in college Katie studied, worked, volunteered locally, spent a semester doing missionary training with YWAM, went to Africa, got good grades and still graduated on time. Pray for her as she seeks full time employment and God's call on her life.

- Megan and her husband Chris live in Richmond, Va. Megan is an elementary school teacher and Chris is a Youth Pastor.
- Anne and I just celebrated our 30th Wedding Anniversary.
- JJ just finished his first year of high school and we just finished recording our first album together. Weller - Brighter is the Light is available on our website. Check it out!
